

THE HERPETOLOGISTS' LEAGUE

ARTICLES OF INCORPORATION AND BYLAWS

Amended: 13 July, 2018

Articles of Incorporation

- Article I. Name:
The society is called “The Herpetologists’ League” (referred to hereinafter as “the League”).
- Article II. Objective:
The objective of the League is to promote the study and conservation of amphibians and reptiles.
- Article III. Bylaws:
The League may formulate bylaws to regulate its organization and procedures.
- Article IV. Governance:
The League is governed by an elected Board of Trustees (referred to hereinafter as “the Board”).
- Article V. Tax-exempt status:
The League is organized for scientific, educational, and charitable purposes as defined under the appropriate section(s) of the US Internal Revenue Code. The League shall not carry on any activities not permitted to be carried on by an organization exempt from US federal income tax under the appropriate section(s) of the US Internal Revenue Code.
- Article VI. Mission:
The Herpetologists' League exists to promote scientific study and conservation of amphibians and reptiles. The primary goals of the League are to support the acquisition of knowledge about these organisms, and to transmit that knowledge through publications, conferences, and symposia. Activities sponsored by the League are designed to engage and encourage young scientists to join in the League’s mission. The products of the League contribute to the global effort to understand and conserve biological diversity on Earth.
- Article VII. Amendments to the Articles of Incorporation:
An affirmative vote by two-thirds of the ballots cast by the League’s membership shall be necessary for adoption of an amendment to the Articles of Incorporation.

Article VIII. Dissolution:
The League may, after paying or adequately providing for any and all debts and obligations, dissolve itself by unanimous consent of the Board.

Article IX. Scientific Meetings:
The League may sponsor or co-sponsor Scientific Meetings in keeping with its Objective and Mission, as it deems advisable.
